People: Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits...

Elder: The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He will not always chide, nor will he keep his anger forever.

People: But the steadfast love of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear him, and his righteousness to children's children, to those who keep his covenant and remember to do his commandments.

Elder: The LORD has established his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom rules over all.

All: Bless the LORD, all his works, in all places of his dominion. Bless the LORD, O my soul!

Affirmation of Faith

Calvin's Catechism #7

Elder: How does the resurrection of Jesus Christ benefit us?

All: First, by the resurrection, righteousness was fully acquired for us. Secondly, it is also a sure pledge to us that we shall rise again one day in immortal glory. Thirdly, if we truly participate in His resurrection, even now we are raised in newness of life, to serve God and to live a holy life according to His pleasure.

Abide with Me

Music: Justin Smith; Lyrics: Henry Francis Lyte, 1847

1. A - bide with me;
2. Thou on my head pre - sence,
3. I need Thy pre - sence,
4. I fear no foe,
5. Hold Thou Thy cross,
fast in falls the e - ven tide;
in ear - ly youth didst smile;
ev - 'ry pass - ing hour.
with Thee at hand to bless;
be - fore my clo - sing eyes;
the and, dark - ness deep - ens;
What though but Thy - lious,
Ills have no weight,
shine through the gloom,

¹We believe that God always initiates with sinners, so we begin worship with His invitation and command to us to gather in His name.

Lord with me a - bide.
and per - verse mean - while,
foil the tempt - er's power?
tears and lose their bit - ter - ness.
point me to the skies.

When oth - er help - ers

Who like Thy - self my death?
Where is thy sting breaks, and fail and com - forts flee, though I oft left Thee.

guide and stay can be?
Where grave thy vic - to - ry?
earth's vain sha - dows flee;

help of the help - less, a - bide with me.
On to the close, Lord, a - bide with me.
Through cloud and sun - shine, a - bide with me.
I tri - umph still, a - bide with me.
in life, in death, Lord, a - bide with me.

Call to Confession

Ephesians 2:1-3

¹And you were dead in the trespasses and sins ²in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience— ³among whom we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the flesh and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind.

Confession of Sin

All: Father in heaven, we need to be forgiven. We have tried to heal ourselves. Instead of trusting in the death of Jesus Christ, we have tried to work off our guilt. We have tried so hard to pile up good deeds that outweigh our sins. When this doesn't work, we quickly turn to denial and distraction. Instead of trusting in the resurrection of Jesus Christ, we have tried to change through our own efforts. We have tried to change our hearts through sheer willpower. This has left us either arrogant and self-satisfied or despairing and anxious. Forgive us for trying to heal ourselves. Forgive us for neglecting your grace. Forgive us and heal us, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

Silent Confession

*Assurance of Forgiveness

Ephesians 2:4-7

⁴But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, ⁵even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved— ⁶and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, ⁷so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.

Please stand, if able.*

²Just as God has the first word in worship, He also has the last word. For those who are in Christ Jesus, these are always words of blessing. We look up and extend our hands out in a posture of receiving the blessing of God.
